The Milestone

FOREWORD

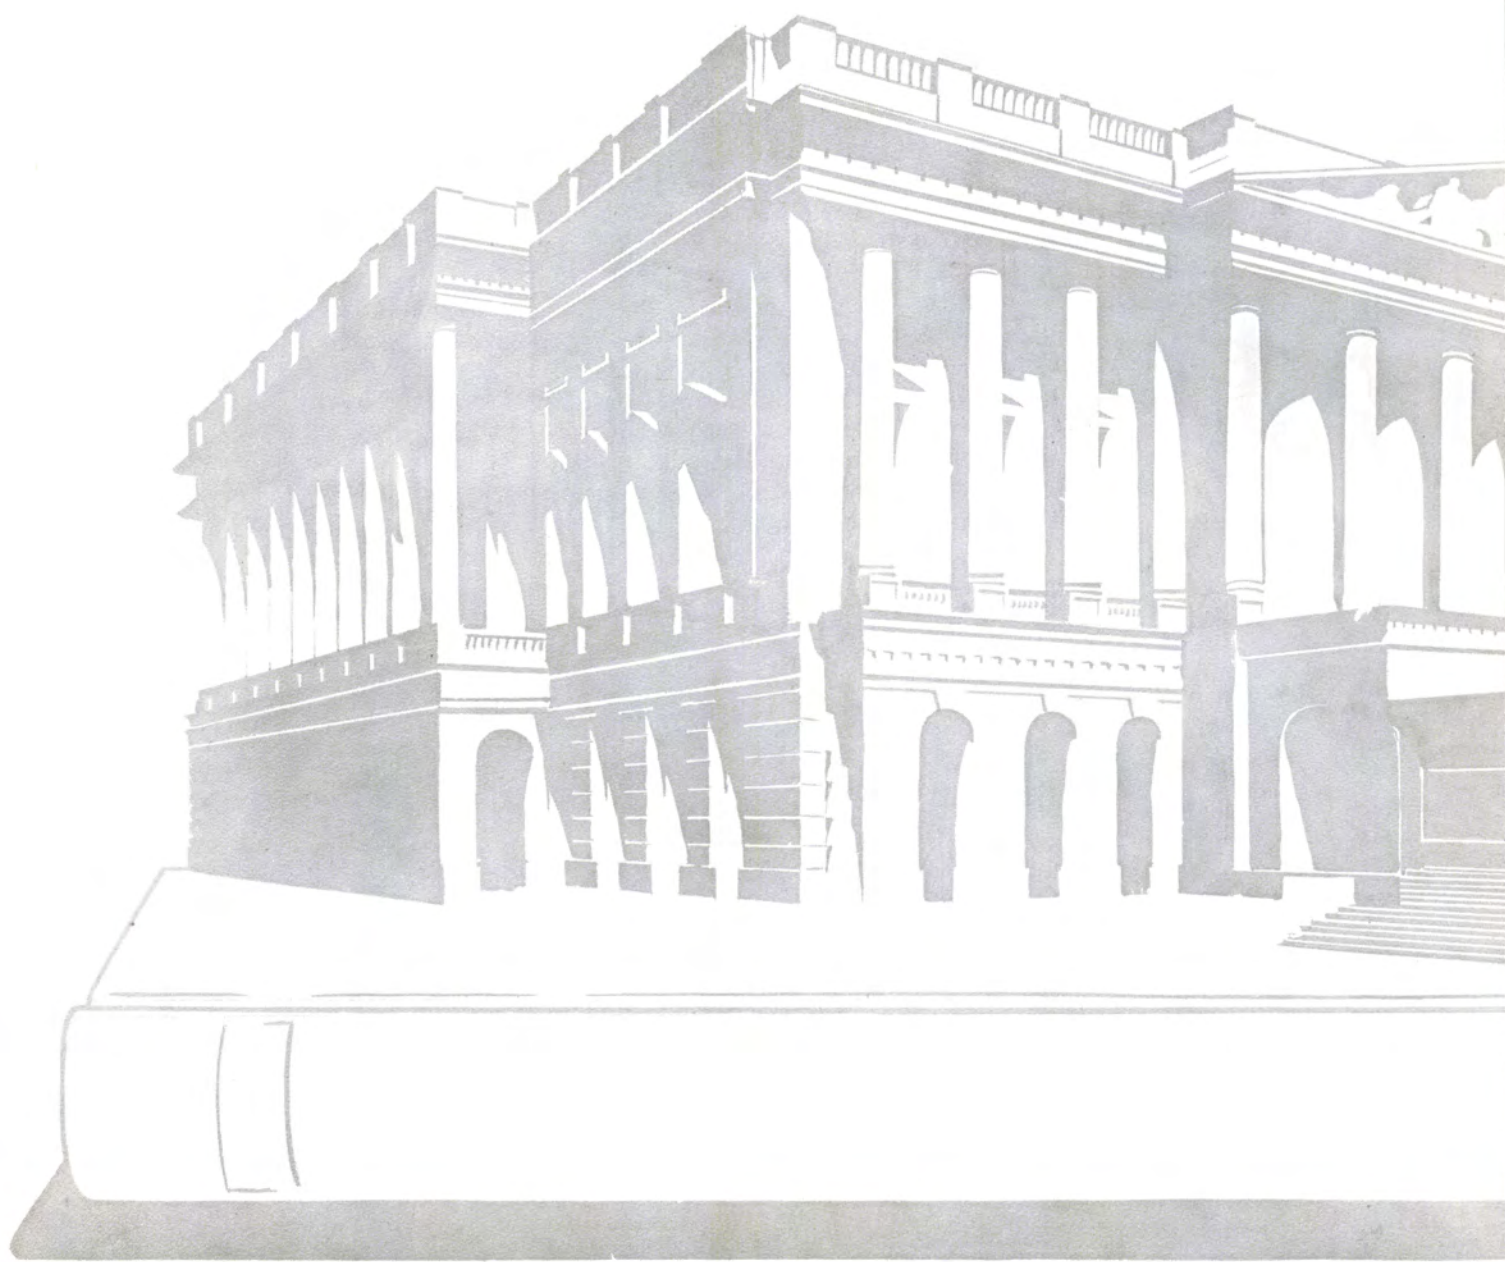

Amid an ever changing society where standards of behavior are in a constant state of flux, there is a cry that echoes throughout the halls of history, "Where is stability? Is there a foundation that will not sway?" The joyous answer resounds from the pages of Holy Writ: "For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ." It is Christ alone who has perfect strength, who gives perfect stability.

Amid that body of souls who have been established upon the Eternal Foundation another call is heard: "Give Me men who are faithful." In the harvest field of souls, the Lord calls some of His laborers to prominence, some to obscurity, but all to singleness of mind, all to an unchanging purpose—all to faithfulness. Being a steward in the work of the Lord demands not weakness, but meekness; not fear, but faith; not selfishness, but selflessness.

It is upon this theme of faithfulness in service that the 1964 Milestone is built.

"Moreover it is required in stewards that a man be found faithful."

DOCTRINAL STATEMENT

We believe in the Bible as the inerrant Word of God, verbally inspired, the all-significant rule of faith and practice.

We believe in one God, eternally existing in three Persons: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

We believe in the virgin birth, the sinless perfection, the bodily resurrection and ascension into heaven of Jesus Christ, and in His present life there for us as High Priest and Advocate.

We believe man was created in the image of God, that he disobeyed God, and thereby incurred spiritual death, which is separation from God, and also physical death as a consequence; and that all the Adamic race are born in sin and are sinners by nature and practice.

We believe that the Lord Jesus Christ died for our sins as a vicarious, substitutionary sacrifice, and that all who believe in Him are justified on the ground of His shed blood.

We believe in the personal, premillennial and imminent return of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

We believe that all who receive by faith the Lord Jesus Christ are born of the Holy Spirit, and thereby become children of God. We believe in the bodily resurrection of the just and unjust, the everlasting blessedness of the saved, and the everlasting punishment of the lost.

We believe the Church is an elect company of believers baptized by the Holy Spirit into one body; its mission is to witness concerning its Head, Jesus Christ, preaching the Gospel among all nations; it will be caught up to meet the Lord in the air ere He appears to set up His kingdom.

We believe the grace of God to be sufficient for the maintenance of a godly walk, and that Christ and not the law is the believer's rule of life.

DEDICATION

The demonstration of servitude in the life of the yielded Christian will be evidenced not only in the classroom and pulpit, but also in personal contacts with Christians and unsaved alike. The servant's selfless attitude and able knowledge of the Scriptures will prove again and again to be an oasis of comfort to those who have been wandering in the desert of confusion and doubt. The servant of the Lord is a living example of the love of Christ.

The tool of the bondsman is the Sword of the Spirit. A disciplined scholarship in the Bible is necessary and will result not in self-glorification, but in a greater devotion to the Heavenly Master and a deeper love for a lost and helpless world. As for the servant, meekness is the cohesion of his framework, knowledge the insulation, and love the covering. From within this earthen vessel will radiate the brilliance of the indwelling and inworking Holy Spirit. As a scholar of Christ, the servant is a loving encouragement.

The direction of service is ever toward those in need; the divine dynamic is ever from on high. Paul said, "For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake." Though the words are 1900 years old, the truth is new with every heartbeat of the servant of the Lord.

The Milestone staff has found these qualities in one of God's faithful and devoted stewards of Washington Bible College. Thus, it is with great pleasure and satisfaction that the 1964 Milestone is dedicated to Dr. John H. Mulholland.

Dr. John H. Mulholland

In Memoriam

Mr. William W. Trumbo, owner of Sanitary Food Store, Inc., Alexandria, Virginia, went to be with the Lord September 16, 1963.

Mr. Trumbo was a faithful servant of the Lord. In 1946, he was a leader in the establishment of a new Christian and Missionary Alliance Church in Arlington, Virginia. He was also instrumental in starting CMA churches in Alexandria, and Manassas, Virginia. At the time of his passing, he was an elder, trustee, and financial secretary of the Arlington Memorial Church.

From September, 1956, he served diligently as a trustee of Washington Bible College. His consistent faithfulness, ready witness, and missionary zeal were an inspiration and encouragement to all who knew him. It was not William Trumbo, but Christ living in and through him, who left an indelible imprint upon all who associated with this man of God.

William W. Trumbo

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

To dare to face life without the wisdom and guidance of God is pure folly. Yet we live in an era which has arrived at an independence of God in every area of life. Secular education has undertaken to orient society and government, and now we are vitally conscious that the introduction of the Bible, religion, or God into these areas would be met by an ever increasing resistance.

How will we react to this situation? Have we received any help at Washington Bible College that will direct us? I believe we have.

Opposed to the extreme position on education pursued by many secular schools, namely, a complete disregard for the Word of God, at WBC the Bible has been the foundation of education. We have come to recognize it as the one essential resource by which we enter the arena of life and wage battle against the forces of Satan. Paul said, "And take the Sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God."

Let us never discount the effectiveness of this Word. When faced with temptation, it is ready to keep us from sin. When perplexed by the question, "which way?", it is a lamp unto our feet and a light unto our path. When beset with, "What is the truth?", we hear the clear statement of Christ, "Thy Word is truth." It stands as a warning to compromise, hypocrisy, and any tendency to consider adjustment to environment when courage and boldness are required for a faithful witness. The Eternal Word will dispel doubt and discouragement by refreshing faith. It will bring us to the end of each day and "that day" abounding in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit because the God of Hope has filled us with all joy and peace in believing.

I am confident that He who began a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ. We expect God to work mightily in and through you.

GEORGE A. MILES

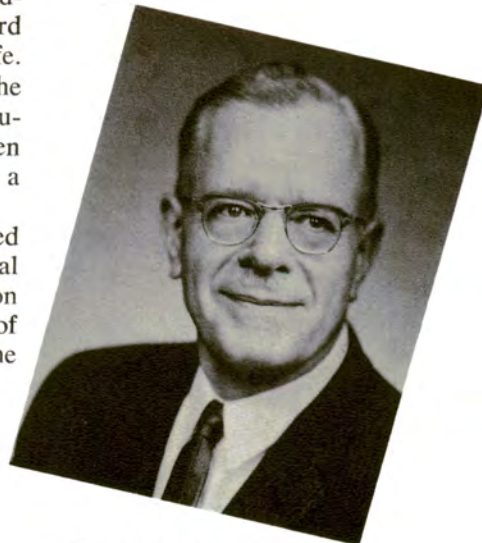

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The final word on business and financial matters, the hiring of new faculty members, and the purchase of buildings and equipment for the college is given by the Board of Trustees, a group of godly men from all walks of life. Faithfulness, spiritual insight, and vision characterize the exemplary lives of these men who hold the place of authority in the Washington Bible College. Upon these men rests the responsibility for its growth and expansion as a training center for men and women of the Word.

Two new buildings for dormitory space were purchased this year through the Board of Trustees, and several changes were made about the buildings in cooperation with the regulations of the Accrediting Association of Bible Colleges, and a new member was added to the faculty.

CAPITAL BIBLE SEMINARY

DEAN'S MESSAGE

Dr. Raymond H. Saxe, Th.D.

B.A., Wheaton College, 1940-44; Th.M., Dallas Theological Seminary, 1944-47; Oklahoma University, Summer of 1947; Th.D., Dallas Theological Seminary, 1954; Northern Baptist Theological Seminary, 1947-48; Instructor, Washington Bible College, 1962-63; Dean, Capital Bible Seminary, 1962-

The Capital Bible Seminary was started in 1958 as the Graduate Division of the Washington Bible College. Consistent with its intention to offer sound evangelical education, the Seminary was approved by the Board of Education of the District of Columbia in 1960 to confer the degree of Bachelor of Divinity upon its graduates.

The Seminary offers a distinctive education which includes the following items:

1. The belief that the Bible College graduate is adequately prepared to undertake seminary training without additional preparation.
2. The offer of advanced Bible training for the Bible College graduate which avoids the duplication of undergraduate study.
3. The provision of a truly sound advanced education in theology for graduates of regular colleges and universities.
4. The affirmation of the dispensational, theological approach to the Word of God.
5. The impartation of a Biblical education which exposes the student to the modern trends, but does not become involved in a philosophical or methodological approach.

Studies in the Seminary may be pursued with the usual theological disciplines of the Old Testament, New Testament, Theology, Church History, Missions, and Practical Theology. A faculty with a thorough academic training, and years of experience and ministry in the things of God, provides these offerings.

The Capital Bible Seminary has taken its place among the truly fine institutions to which a prospective minister or missionary of the Gospel will turn for training. From its halls will continue to move men who have a working knowledge of the original languages of the Scriptures, a sound basis of systematic Biblical theology, comprehensive study of the English Bible, and a warm spiritual experience in the practical aspects of the Christian ministry and mission.

Dr. Raymond H. Saxe

Capital Bible Seminary was established for the purpose of affording further training for the Bible college and liberal arts graduate. CBS is a three-year seminary with a Bible-centered curriculum, conferring the degree of Bachelor of Divinity to its graduates. Majors are available in the fields of Old Testament, New Testament, Theology, Church History, Missions, and Pastoral Theology. The Seminary provides a unique education on a graduate level in the dispensational and premillennial approach to the Word of God. It is thoroughly evangelical, fervent in spirit, and missionary in outlook.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The energy of the Student Council is directed into the efficient coordination of the faculty program and student activities. As a result of this teamwork, several new projects were initiated such as student stationery and a "buddy" prayer system in which each student was assigned a definite schoolmate for whom to pray. The Council worked with a view to greater unity among the student body and, in doing so, injected the dorm activities and prayer meetings with a measure of spiritual "adrenalin." This was evidenced in the hearty response of students toward such events as tract socials and parties. In all, the Student Council did much to keep the spiritual climate of the College at a high level throughout the year.

FOREIGN MISSIONS FELLOWSHIP

Foreign Missions Fellowship is the vehicle of missionary thought and prayer at Washington Bible College. It is an organization formed to promote missionary interest among students and inform them of activities on the foreign field. These aims are carried out through weekly chapels that spotlight challenging missionary speakers, and through six prayer bands that cover the major areas of the world. These prayer bands meet weekly for the dual purpose of praying for specific missionary needs, and reporting on various areas of the world.

This year's FMF project was the supplying of funds for a children's chapel in Morocco where Jim Pitts, a WBC alumnus, is presently serving. The FMF also sponsored the annual Missionary Conference which had as its theme "Commitment in Crisis." It was designed to help the student assume the proper attitude toward missionary service wherever God might lead.

HONOR SOCIETY AND AWARDS

The Chi Alpha Omega Honor Society was established for the encouragement of students by recognizing their academic achievements. Requisite for entrance into the Honor Society is the attainment of a grade point average of at least 2.50 out of a possible 3.00. Continued membership is based upon the maintenance of the grade average throughout the academic year, and it is recognized by successive awards of gold pins. The highest honor one can receive is the Chi Alpha Omega Key which is given upon completion of four years in the Society. These awards are not an end in themselves, but they are a method of keeping before the student the necessity of continued academic excellence.

The Milestone is not simply a chronicle of memories, but it is an effective means of advertising as well. Through it hundreds are informed of an education that is Biblical by choice, not by chance. The Milestone also portrays student life as it is—hectic at times, tedious in spots, sometimes hilarious, but always Christ-conscious, and one that majors in the Book. From start to finish, this publication is a student product, and it serves to develop teamwork and talents which will be of value in future service for the Lord.

THE STUDENT SLANT

The Student Slant, WBC's four-year old student newspaper, fulfills a definite need in the realm of communications among the college students by presenting various activities and challenges current in school affairs. While providing a service for the College, those involved in the publication of the paper also gain valuable training in the fields of journalism and organization. This year's emphasis concerns itself with the spiritual victories of the students, and the goal is to make Christ preeminent in each issue.

THE TIDINGS HOUR

To further its gospel outreach, the Washington Bible College produces its own radio program, "The Tidings Hour." This Bible teaching ministry is heard each Sunday afternoon at 1:00 p.m. over WFAX, 1220 kc. College and Seminary faculty members conduct systematic studies in the Word of God which are a source of spiritual stimulation to Christians as well as a means of spreading the Good News to the unsaved. Each week the Capital-Aires, Capital-Ettes, and the College Choir sing the praises of God in a refreshing musical package for the purpose of glorifying God and reaching souls for Christ.

STUDENT WIVES' FELLOWSHIP

The Student Wives' Fellowship has been in operation for the past six years. The purpose of the organization is to offer stimulating Christian fellowship, Bible study, and prayer meetings to wives, whose husbands attend the College or Seminary, and married women attending the day school. Devotional, missionary, educational, and practical meetings are held in the homes of members of the Fellowship or at the College the third Friday of each month. The highlight of the year is the wives' commencement when the wives of graduates are granted the degree of P.H.T.—“Putting Hubby Through.”

The ice maker supplied by the Auxiliary.

The Auxiliary helped to buy this freezer.

Submitting personal needs for personal prayer.

Prayer is a vital factor in the shaping of the spiritual character and proficiency of the student body, and thus has opened a ministry of fundamental value for the Women's Auxiliary. The "Student Prayer Box," placed on the first-floor level of the school by the Auxiliary, provides an ever accessible avenue for earnest prayer for the personal requests of each student. The twenty or more WBC alumni missionaries are upheld in prayer continually by individual members of the Auxiliary. The special requests of each missionary are brought before the group through correspondence, and each one is remembered in prayer at cottage prayer meetings.

This year, the Women's Auxiliary was the agent in furnishing the dining room with an ice-making machine, another much-needed piece of equipment for the school.

A unique feature of the Women's Auxiliary is that it does not have membership or required dues. Rather, it is open to any woman who is sincerely interested in the Washington Bible College and desirous of giving of herself in this work of the Lord.

CHRISTIAN SERVICE ACTIVITIES

Herbert D. Arnold, Director of Christian Service.

Charles Hanshew, Assistant Director of Christian Service

Practical service plays a vital role in the education of every WBC student. Designed to supplement as well as to cement the College's academic training, the Christian Service Department provides ample opportunity to put into practice the principles learned in the classroom. Through ministries in such areas as Child Evangelism, Bible clubs, jail services, and Sunday Schools, WBC men and women, equipped with the Sword of the Spirit, come face to face with the heart-needs of a world lost in sin. Throughout the academic year, other activities such as tract distributions and visitation campaigns are directed under the auspices of the Christian Service Department which afford the student a well-rounded sphere of service.

MINISTRIES

IN MUSIC

The Department of Music functions as both an academic and a service organization. It is academic in that it provides, first, the basic core of instruction leading to the major in sacred music and, second, instruction in the field of applied music. It is also a service organization in that it initiates and sponsors all musical activity of the College. The specific objectives are: (1) to complement the basic core curriculum of the College by encouraging the entire student body to interest, appreciation, and participation in the field of music; (2) to provide specialized training necessary to prepare qualified students for the ministry of music in such areas of ministry as organists, pianists, choir directors, soloists, or instrumentalists; (3) to assist the student to formulate a Biblically oriented philosophy of the musical ministry in the operation of the Church.

PRAYER STEWARDS

Rev. Edward Stelling

The foundation of WBC is not simply mortar and stone, but it is also the effectual prayer of the saints. The spiritual footings of prayer were first laid by Mr. E. W. Collamore when he organized the American Home Bible Institute in the early 1920's which today is Washington Bible College. Over the years, God has raised up faithful ones to intercede for the College until now there are 370 friends who have pledged their willingness to pray regularly and systematically as Prayer Stewards.

Rev. Ed Stelling, pastor of the Charleston Harbor Bible Church, Charleston, S. C., directs the Prayer Steward Department, and since 1938 he has been writing the monthly prayer letter which each Steward receives.

"The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much."
James 5:16.

THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Paul Kendle, President

One of the mainstays of the Washington Bible College is its Alumni Association. This organization stands as a bridge between the undergraduates and friends of the College. It seeks to promote prayer and financial interest in the College both by Alumni and friends. It is also the purpose of the Alumni Association to promote fellowship among the graduates.

Among the functions of the Association is its Annual New Year's Tea. The highlight of the activities of the organization is Homecoming week which is held in conjunction with the College commencement. It culminates in a banquet at which the guests are the graduating seniors.

Members of the Alumni Association are serving the Lord in manifold realms throughout the world. Many have left the environs of Washington Bible College and its academic atmosphere to put to use the tools they have acquired in the classroom. In the present student body there are many who have heard God's call to join those in the field. As the students pray for the alumni, we can rejoice that these individuals are also praying for the students' needs which are made known to them through the Alumni Association.

ALUMNI SPOTLIGHT

Rev. David Hamburg

In the early fall of 1953 a small group of fifteen believers from the Woodbridge Baptist Church, at the leading of the Holy Spirit, felt the need of organizing a fundamental, independent Baptist Church in the Woodbridge, Virginia area. Rev. David A. Hamburg, following two other men, accepted the call to be the pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church upon graduation from WBC in 1959. Rev. Hamburg has seen the Lord bless his congregation over his five-year ministry and has watched the church increase steadily since his installment.

Rev. Homer Heater

Mr. Heater was graduated from Washington Bible College in 1959. That same year he was called to be pastor of Faith Chapel of Derwood, Maryland, which is now called the Derwood Bible Church. Through his ministry God has blessed that fellowship in a wonderful way. In 1963 they broke ground for a new building which they hope will be completed in the not-too-distant future. This will greatly facilitate the teaching ministry of the church. Mr. Heater's personal ministry and enthusiasm for the Lord's work has been a genuine spiritual asset to the entire College family.

ACTIVITIES

WABANNA ADVANCE

On September 13, 14, and 15, the Wabanna Bible Conference, on the shores of the Chesapeake Bay, saw the gathering together of student body, faculty, and staff for the purpose of spearheading another academic year at WBC. The theme of the "Advance" was "Glorifying God in College Life," and it found as its launching pad I Corinthians 10:31. The combination of informative and inspirational lectures plus a vigorous activity schedule left its imprint on the heart and mind of the student. This resulted in the permeation of each one with not only an enthusiasm for a dimensional spiritual walk, but also for a disciplined study life.

SPECIAL SPEAKERS

Don and Faye McFarland of the Pocket Testament League

Although WBC students are constantly engaged in the study of the Bible, there is still a need for challenges, exhortations, and reminders from God's Book. It is the student's privilege to hear each week from missionaries, pastors, Christian businessmen, and members of the College and Seminary faculty. Through these men of God, students are kept up to date with the needs of the mission field, the pastorate, present day theological issues, and opportunities for service. These special chapel speakers are one channel through which God works to lead students along in His divine program.

YOUTH CONFERENCE

Jack Wyrzen

Metropolitan A.M.E. Church

On the evening of November 8, 1963, a heart-stirring youth rally initiated the annual WBC Youth Conference. Evangelist Jack Wyrzen ministered in spoken word while the Word of Life Quartet and the College Choir ministered in song. Those who remained for the entire conference were housed in the Pick Lee Hotel which is within walking distance from the school. Both faculty and students participated in the program and shared their hospitality, interest, and information with the inquisitive conferees.

The theme of this year's Conference, "Christ Exalted," was emphasized in the presentation of each area of school life. A dimensional view of WBC was also given through the media of classroom sessions, skits, musical selections, and student testimonies.

Rev. William Sampson

FOUNDERS' WEEK

Rev. William E. Sampson, pastor of the Sheets Memorial Church, Lexington, North Carolina, addressed the WBC a student body during Founders' Week, January 6-10. His messages were taken primarily from the books of Romans and Ephesians and concerned various aspects of the Christian experience. His knowledge of the Bible plus his ability to apply the truths to the lives of the students made his messages timely and well received.

Founders' Week was climaxed by the Founders' Banquet which was held at the Fourteenth Street Marriott Motor Hotel. Here some 300 interested friends joined the student body in reviewing once again the beginning of the College. During this final meeting, Rev. Sampson delivered a challenging and straightforward sermon concerning the value and necessity of the Bible college movement.

MISSIONARY CONFERENCE

March 12 and 13 were two days of vast importance to the students of WBC. During these days various mission fields were presented in order to acquaint the student with the task of modern missions. Panel discussions and workshops were held so that the conferees might present personal questions to the speakers. The theme of the conference was "Commitment in Crisis", and was aimed at informing the student of missionary needs and opportunities so that he might intelligently pray and consider God's will for future service.

SUMMER MINISTRIES

Testimonies of students who have participated in a summer ministry confirm the significant value of such a program in the development of their spiritual character and in the use of the tools which have been placed in their hands through their studies at WBC. Summer ministries also have been proved to be priceless preparation for the pastorate or the mission field through the practical experience of living and dealing with people and of seeing and meeting their needs by the Word of God.

CHARLIE VISITS PERU

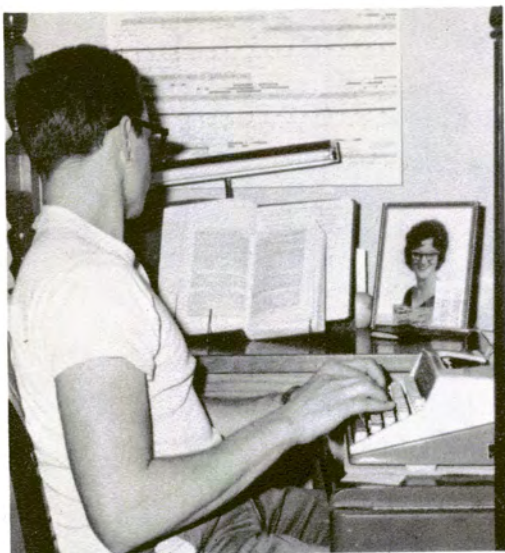

Charlie Bruynell, now a senior at WBC, left Washington, D. C. on June 18, 1963, for a all-summer ministry in Peru, South America. Charlie traveled with the Pocket Testament League and worked with Dick Trout, a WBC alumnus, in spreading the gospel to the spiritually starved hearts of South America. It was Charlie's duty to locate a suitable location for open-air meetings in the cities, set up the sound truck, and keep everything in working order. In his travels he noticed Peru to be a land of contrasts: from bicycles to limousines; from primitive jungles to ultra-modern cities; and saddest of all—a country with a great religious fervor, but with a dearth of spiritual life.

The Lord willing, Charlie and his wife Betty will be returning to South America in the summer of 1964. As missionaries under the Pocket Testament League, they will be sowing the good news of God's wonderful salvation.

SPORTS

A vigorous athletic program plays a vital role in any sound academic schedule. At WBC, students are encouraged to participate in basketball, volleyball, ping pong, and other activities in order to keep their bodies healthy along with their minds. The one league sport the College engages in is basketball. Throughout the season many enthusiastic WBC fans turned out to see the WABICO's post their best record to date. If points scored matched the school spirit, WBC would be undefeated.
